Office Action Summary

Serial Number: 08/126,505

Art Unit: 1647

In view of applicant's petition filed June 13, 2003 requesting that all of the remaining species of fusion proteins be examined, FINALITY is withdrawn and prosecution on the merits is reopened and all pending claims 1, 3-5, 8 - 16, 18 - 20, 23 - 32, and 34 are under examination. Therefore, the petition filed June 13, 2003 is now mooted.

The rejection of claims 1, 3, 8, 9, 12, 13, 15, 16, 18, 23, 24, 27, 28, and 30 - 32 as being obvious over Lowell et al. in view of Fearon et al., Cara, Atkinson et al., and Bell et al. was reversed by decision of Board mailed February 3, 2003.

The rejection of claims 8, 9, 23, and 24 under 35 USC 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite was affirmed by the decision of the Board mailed February 3, 2003. This same issue appears in claim 25. Therefore, this claim is also rejected under 35 USC 112, second paragraph, for being vague and indefinite.

With regard to this indefiniteness rejection, the Board stated:

Claims 8, 9, 23, and 24 have been determined by the examiner to be indefinite for a very specific reason, i.e., "it is not clear whether all instances of a given residue are to be substituted, i.e. wither[sic] all "I" residues are replaced by either L or V or only some of the I residues, or only a single I residue, and if so, which one." Examiner's Answer, page 4. Appellant's arguments in the Appeal Brief in regard to this rejection do not acknowledge the specific reasons the examiner gives for this rejection. See Appeal Brief, pages 12 - 13. The examiner has identified a plausible ambiguity in the claims. It is appellant's responsibility then to argue the specifics of the examiner's position. This has not happened.

An ambiguous claim is indefinite under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph. In re Zletz, 893 F.2d 319, 321-322, 13 USPQ2d 1320, 1322 (Fed. Cir. 1989). Appellants have not directly argued the propriety of the rejection as made in the Examiner's Answer. Under these circumstances we will affirm the examiner's rejection under 35 USC 112, second paragraph.

Claims 1, 3 - 5, 10 - 16, 18 - 20, 26 - 32, and 34 are allowable.

Claims 8, 9, 23 - 25 are rejected.
